Julian Rocks

Byron Bay

On the East Coast of Australia, about 800 kilometers north from Sydney, Byron Bay is the most easterly point of the Australian mainland. This popular subtropical holiday destination is renowned for its beautiful beaches and stunning hinterland. Here, only 2.5 kilometers from the shore lies Julian Rocks Marine Reserve.

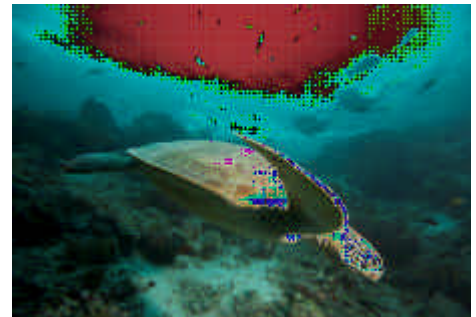

Named by Captain Cook in 1776, Julian Rocks consists of ancient metamorphic rock thrust through the earth's crust millions of years ago. It is an extension of Cape Byron separated by the ocean and forms a unique habitat providing shelter and food for sea turtles, rays, corals, over 500 different species of fish and many more marine creatures.

Strive towards the "Master Scuba Diver" rating whilst you're away on this trip. Do your PADI Naturalist or Enriched Air Course for only $250.00 each. That's a huge saving!
